

Correspondence.

Brunswick Brevities.

A. G. Kennedy had business in Keytesville one day this week.

H. W. Hill had business in Kansas City one day this week.

Judge L. H. Herring had business at the capitol one day this week.

Attorney Holliday of Carrollton was here one day this week on business.

Attorney E. T. Miller of Keytesville was here Sunday visiting his friends.

Rev. Franc. Mitchell filled his regular appointment here Sunday, morning and evening.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reichenbach last Sunday a boy. Martin is the happiest man in town.

The Rapiers players gave a weeks entertainment at the City hall and had a well-filled house each night.

Judge David Funk returned the latter part of the week from a visit to relatives in Hamilton county, Ohio.

The Catholic church will be dedicated next Sunday. Rt. Rev. Bishop F. M. Burke will preach the English sermon.

The new residence of Dr. E. H. Bragg in the west end will soon be ready for occupancy. It's an ornament to the city.

C. P. Vandiver, editor of the best paper published in Chariton county, was here Saturday in the interest of his paper, the COURIER.

Attorney Chas. E. Finch spoke to the Democrats of Hazel ridge Monday night. The speaking was well attended about fifty of the faithful being out.

The Kinkhorst building is rapidly nearing completion, and will soon be ready for occupancy. It is quite an improvement on the old frame structure that stood there so long. When completed it will be occupied by Mr. Kinkhorst as a grocery store and bakery.

John Knappenburger died at his family residence in this city on Tuesday evening, Oct. 21, 1902, about 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Knappenburger was one of the old residents of Brunswick and has filled many positions of honor and trust in the city and county. He lives a wife and five children to mourn his death.

Mendon Mention.

Yellow Creek is on a big rise. Thanks to P. C. Ward for $1 on subscription.

Ted Herbert and wife went to Kansas City Monday on a pleasure trip.

W. J. Atterbury and family visited his mother and family, near Keytesville, Sunday and Monday.

Frank Elliott of Triplett was here Tuesday with several men putting in a switch-board and a telephone system.

Mat Smith and James Kelley have both sold their farms, the former 100 acres and the latter 115 acres, to Alexander Gordon of Lacona, Iowa. The trades were made through the Hendrickson & Carper real estate agency.

Rev. Hammerschmidt is putting up a business house on Main street with two rooms. One of the rooms will be occupied by the Mendon Citizen and the other by Hendrickson & Carper, the hustling real estate men.

Triplett Topics.

Miss Fannie Gaines, the deputy postmistress at Snyder, was in town Sunday.

D. H. Zimmerman shipped several loads of hogs last week to Kansas City.

I. R. Smith and family are entertaining some relatives from Indiana this week.

Miss Minnie Davidson returned home Wednesday from an extended visit to Marshall.

J. A. Hooper and wife returned home Monday evening from a week's visit with friends in St. Louis.

Stewart Henderson and wife, who have been making several weeks' visit to friends at Rio, Ill., returned Friday.

H. C. Milligan of Curzon,

Holt county, Mo., are visiting his son, John, the night operator, and Mrs. W. W. Wilson of this place.

We understand that Mrs. J. T. Leonard and family will leave in a few days for Illiopolis, Ill., where they expect to make their future home.

Mrs. J. W. Dickinson of Lamon, Ia., came in Sunday for a few days' visit to her husband at this place and will return Wednesday.

Dr. W. F. Pumphrey is building a cellar near his residence, and we presume he will be ready for any cyclone that may be running loose in this part of the country.

Misses Anna Lee, Della She-walter and Fannie Moritz and Messrs. F. M. Elliott and J. G. Bartow went to Columbia Saturday on the excursion and had quite an enjoyable time.

W. H. Houser of near Decatur, Ill., is visiting his son, Melvin Houser, north of town. Mr. Houser purchased the Minich farm some eighteen months ago and is delighted with the outlook. He thinks a bright future is before Chariton county people.

Messrs. Kahler, Duffield and Ward, who made a trip south of the river several days ago, have returned home delighted with the country. Mr. Ward purchased eighty acres of land in Benton county, Mo., and Mr. Kahler has an option on 120 acres which he expects to take in a short time.

Scribner Shots.

J. C. Scotten was up near Eccles Monday on business.

M. C. Smith and wife of Dalton were here last Sunday.

G. S. Brooks of Salisbury attended church here Sunday.

J. H. Cash sold John Bashnell two mule colts for $48.00 apiece.

John Q. Perkins was down near Dalton Thursday and Friday on business.

J. C. Scotten, wife and daughters, visited friends near Shan-nodale, one day last week.

Mrs. G. S. Brooks and children of Salisbury are visiting her parents, P. S. Gordon and wife.

Rev. DeWeese will fill his regular appointment here next Sunday, morning and evening.

B. R. Collet went to Kansas and from there to Oklahoma last week looking for a location.

Rev. DeWeese and wife of Indian Grove came down last Sunday to hear the lady evangelist.

J. F. Pratt and wife of Salisbury were over Friday calling on Mrs. Pratt's Mother, Mrs. J. B. Larkins.

Esquire H. A. Wheeler was here Thursday drawing up the deed between Joll Elam and J. H. Grigely.

T. H. Kleasner commenced moving his farming implements to his new home in Howard county last week.

B. R. Collet, who has been in Kansas and Oklahoma for the past two weeks returned home last Saturday.

C. E. Hill, agent for the Baker Medicine Co., of Keokuk, Iowa, was here Thursday making his regular rounds.

L. L. (Toad) Gordon got tired of city life and sold his delivery to Wm. Veal and moved to the country last week.

Mrs. J. M. Job, who has been visiting friends in Griggsville, Ill., for the past six weeks, returned home last Saturday.

Leroy Williams of Cazzell came up Thursday and Mrs. J. C. Larkins and baby boy came with him, and, of course, J. C. is all smiles.

Miss Eva Shoemaker of near Pee Dee attended church here Sunday morning and our young friend, Robt. K., was looking his sweetest.

W. A. Stratton, Scribner's pedagogue, attended the wedding of his daughter, Miss Judith Ingram, at Brunswick Wednesday evening.

S. J. Stowers lost a valuable horse last Thursday. Mr. Stowers had been to Moberly with a load of apples and the

From The Sheep's Back to a man's back is quite a long jump, but nevertheless

CAPPS CLOTHING

is actually produced right from the raw material to the ready-to-put-on garment in one plant. Nothing but good, pure native wool is used in weaving the cloth, and the clothing is cut and tailored in clean, healthful and strictly modern shops, under the personal supervision of a member of the firm of

J. CAPP & SONS, Ltd.

ESTABLISHED 1839.

This is one of the very few brands of clothing which we can and do unequally guarantee.

Capps Suits	-	$10.00 to $18.00
Capps Trousers	-	$3.00 to $6.00
Capps Overcoats	-	$12.00 to $18.00

We carry a sufficiently large assortment of these well-known goods to suit every taste. A look is enough.

AGEE BROS. Keytesville, Mo.

horse died on the road home.

Rev. Alice Draper Smith of St. Joseph, a lady evangelist of the Christian church, delivered two instructive discourses here Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Mrs. Arthur Walker and baby of Macon county came down Saturday to visit her parents, J. T. Cooley and wife, and her sisters, Mesdames Rice and Has-ton.

J. J. Fennell is grieving over the loss of his sparking animal, the one that he rode some fifteen years ago, which died last week. We think his brother, K. G., had been using it and kept it tied down on the Chariton too often.

Henry Arnesmier claims the heaviest yield on one acre of ground of anyone in this vicinity. In the spring he planted it in potatoes and then planted it in corn and pumpkins. The potatoes will make 151 bushels, the corn 35 and the pumpkins ten wagon loads.

C. L. Williams and wife of Ayres, Saline county, came over Thursday to visit ye pencil pusher and other relatives. They returned home Sunday and left Tuesday for Spokane, Washington, and ordered the Great Favorite Weekly to follow them to their western home.

We noticed one of our good looking widowers the evening of the Jenkins-Holman wedding going towards Keytesville with his face wreathed in smiles, and upon inquiry he informed us he was going to attend the wedding, but why should he go by way of Keytesville to attend a wedding near Snapp we cannot understand. An explanation is in order.

Musselfork Memoirs.

Major Dameron rode the M. W. A. goat at Musselfork Tuesday night.

The Chariton river which has been on such a rampage is falling rapidly.

Henry B. Egan of Keytesville made his weekly visit here Sunday as usual.

Rev. J. L. Routt filled the pulpit at the Presbyterian church here Sunday.

Chas. B. Kavanah and wife and P. P. Chrane went on a business trip to Prairie Hill Tuesday.

Eld. Henry Eubank, a Christian church divine will preach at the Union church the third Sunday in November.

Mrs. Beulah Patrick and little daughter spent last week visiting friends and relatives in the Chraneville neighborhood.

Edmon B. Welch moved his saw mill into P. P. Chrane's pasture Wednesday, where he will still continue the manufacture of lumber.

Madam Rumor reports a marriage to take place near Hamden this or next week. The prospective bridegroom was a Colorado machinist.

Ralph Green of Cuba, Mo., worshiped at Pee Dee Sunday. He will remain in these parts,

The Chariton County Abstract Co. make accurate record abstracts from abstract books carefully compiled by an expert, and evinces its appreciation of business by giving the same prompt and careful attention. MINTER & CRAWLEY, Managers. Office in courthouse, Keytesville, Mo.

REMOVAL.

I am now located in my new storeroom, which I have named the Red Front Grocery Store, and am much better prepared to serve my customers with choice, fresh groceries. My prices are always right and my goods are the best.

I have just added a nice line of queensware, to which I invite your inspection.

Goods delivered to any part of the city.

All kinds of country produce wanted for trade or cash.

C. L. White,

Keytesville, - - - Missouri

O. B. Anderson & Son, DRUGGISTS

Keytesville, Mo.

Dealers in Drugs, Patent Medicines, Chemicals, Sponges, Brushes, Rubber Goods, Perfumery, Wall Paper, Cigars and Tobacco. Bargains in a lot of stationery and stock food which we are closing out at cost. Physicians' Prescriptions carefully compounded day or night by a registered Pharmacist. We cordially invite you to visit our store at any time where we will be pleased to show you anything in the drug line, for we can suit you in quality and in price. Respectfully,

O. B. Anderson & Son,
Phone N0.17.

THE BROWN HOUSE

Keytesville, Mo.,

J. T. Colley, Proprietor,

Respectfully solicits a share of the public patronage. Good brick building, with comfortable, well-ventilated rooms. Tables always supplied with the best to be had on the market.

will he harvests the corn crop of his uncle, Albert Knott, who is attending a medical college at St. Louis.

Chas. Clarkson has bought this end of E. M. Carter's telephone system from Chraneville this way, and is putting in 'phones and a switch-board at his residence which will be central.

Last Sunday's St. Louis Republic contained a picture of E. A. Chapman, Jr., his assassins, and a scene of the murder which occurred at the depot at Brown's Station. It also published the story of the murder.

'Squire E. A. Chapman went to Columbia last Thursday to attend the trial of the men charged with the murder of his son, Eddie, but the case was continued until the next term of the Boone circuit court.

Indian Grove Items.

Mrs. A. Newsom is on the sick list this week.

J. A. Hise of Keytesville spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

The speakers billed to speak at this place Tuesday night failed to appear.

Cliff Atterbury and wife of Mendon were guests of his sister, Mrs. Lucinda Pinnell Sunday.

Lent Bogard and wife are all smiles over the appearance of a lovely little daughter at their home.

Misses Lillie and Etta Heaton are spending a few days this week with their sister, Mrs. B. A. Black.

Bennie Moorman of near Marcelline visited his cousin, Oscar Henderson, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. C. Newsom of near Brunswick visited the family A. Newsom Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Miss Carrie Willett of Keytesville spent Saturday night and Sunday with her friends, Geo. Joseph and wife.

Misses Lula and Elva Wheeler of near Guthridge Mills were guests of Mrs. Letta Mauzey Monday and Tuesday night.

Mrs. J. L. Hise and little son, Ernest, returned home Saturday after a three weeks visit with relatives in Livingston county.

Miss Ora Tanket and brother of near Rothville spent Saturday and Sunday with their friends, Frank Clair and sister.

Willie DeWeese, after a two months' visit in Kansas City, is again with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Deweese, Sr.

"Grandma" Herring of Paris, Mo., and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Chas. Herring of north of Keytesville, were calling on friends here Tuesday.

Master Willie Zillman left Thursday for his home in Kansas after spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zillman.

Mrs. G. K. Adams and Mrs. Fanny Bradbury and son, Charley, left Tuesday afternoon for Weatherford, Okla., for a two or three weeks' visit with relatives.

"Uncle" Richard Callabam and daughter, Miss Hattie, returned to the home of his son, W. S. Callabam Saturday after a two-weeks' visit with relatives near Marcelline.